SS. CITY OF FLINT LEAVES MURMANSK FOR UNKNOWN PORT

Freighter Seized by Germans Released by Russians, But Whether in Charge of Prize Crew Or Own Captain Not Revealed—Nazis Boast Ship Will Go to Germany

MOSCOW, Oct. 26 (P).—The Soviet Government tonight released the United States freighter City of Flint and well-informed sources said that she had sailed under the United States flag from Murmansk, Russian port where she was taken on Monday by a German prize crew.

The Government announcement said merely that the ship had been given clearance after inspection of her cargo and ordered to leave port immediately, but failed to throw any light on whether the American or the German crew was directed to take the vessel away.

Well-informed sources, however, denied German reports she had sailed under the Nazi banner.

SUBMARINE CONVOY

BERLIN, Oct. 26 (P).—Confidence the United States freighter City of Flint would reach a German port safely before long was expressed tonight in well-informed German circles.

These quarters indicated that despite the demand of Cordell Hull, United States Secretary of State, the ship be returned to the United States, the vessel would be conveyed from Murmansk by submarine.

BY-ELECTIONS WILL BE HELD

Two of Seven Vacant Federal Ridings to Be Filled On December 18

OTTAWA, Oct. 26 (P).—A start of the by-elections necessary to fill the seven vacancies now existing in the House of Commons was made today when Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced that voting in the ridings of Kent, Ont., and Saskatoon will take place on December 18.

The vacancies were created by the death of the sitting members, Dr. J. W. Rutherford, in Kent, and Dr. A. M. Young, in Saskatoon, both Liberals.

Remaining vacancies are in Montreal St. James, caused by the death of Hon. Fernand Rinfret, Secretary of State; Montreal-Jacques Cartier, by the death of Vital Malleville; Bonaventure, by resignation of P. E. Cote; Drummond-Arthabaska, by resignation of Wilfrid Girouard, and Kindsley, Sask., by resignation of O. B. Elliott, Social Credit member.

HELD BY LIBERALS

With exception of the Kindsley riding, all vacancies are in seats formerly held by Liberals. Mr. Cote and Mr. Girouard resigned to contest yesterday's Quebec provincial elections, and both were successful. Mr. Elliott resigned to make way for Hon. W. D. Herridge, leader of the New Democracy movement with which the Social Credit party has allied itself.

Announcement of the two by-elections, made after Cabinet Council, was the only public statement following the meeting.

It was assumed the Government had definitely decided against any Dominion general election before the next session of Parliament, which will probably open in January.

READY TO EXERT ENTIRE STRENGTH

King Leopold Declares Belgium If Invaded Would Fight With Full Forces

BRUSSELS, Oct. 27 (P).—Leopold, King of the Belgians, declared in a trans-Atlantic broadcast early today that if Belgium were invaded "with her people would fight, with the same conviction as in 1914, but with forces ten times stronger."

Addressing the people of the United States through a forum conducted by The New York Herald-Tribune, King Leopold reaffirmed Belgium's desire for peace and neutrality, and he asked for support of the United States in this stand.

"We are prepared," he said, "to exert our entire strength in order to uphold our independence."

French Tanker Afire After Attack

Answering the distress call of the British freighter Heronspool, the United States liner President Harding sighted a pillar of smoke after rescuing thirty-six survivors of the Heronspool. Speeding to the scene of the smoke, the American liner found the torpedoed French tanker Emile Miguet in flames, but there was no sign of any survivors.

PLANS NOT ACCEPTABLE

Finland Unable to Grant Russian Demands—Meetings to Continue

HELSINKI, Oct. 26 (P).—Soviet Russia's demands were declared unacceptable to Finland by the Finnish leader tonight, while another asked the Finnish people to remember the "nations wiped off the map of Europe."

Finance Minister Vaeon Tanner disclosed Russia's proposals are still unacceptable, but asserted "I still think we can come to an agreement."

Foreign Minister Eljas Erko, addressing a large patriotic rally, referred to the last two years in which "two ancient countries (Czechoslovakia and Poland) have been wiped off the map of Europe. Both great and small states are anxiously wondering what the future holds for them and in which direction the wheels of fate will carry them."

ACTIVE IN NEGOTIATIONS
Erko had an active part in the Moscow negotiations. Tanner was a member of the delegation which went to the Kremlin.

In his statement, Tanner said the negotiators probably would start a return trip to Moscow on Sunday to resume the talks.

Indian Acquitted Of Murder Charge

NANAIMO, Oct. 26.—Simeon McLean, twenty-nine-year-old Indian, was found not guilty here tonight on a charge of having murdered Lohi Rier, six-year-old Indian girl, on May 7 last. The trial had occupied four days of the Assize Court, with evening sittings. Mr. Justice A. I. Fisher, presiding, in his charge to the jury took two hours and ten minutes. The jury deliberated for two and a half hours before returning to the courtroom with its verdict.

Liberal Returned to Cranbrook Seat in Three-Sided Contest

Arnold McGrath, Twenty-Seven, Elected to Succeed F. M. MacPherson in Provincial Legislature—C.C.F. Candidate 400 Votes Behind

CRANBROOK, B.C., Oct. 26 (P).—Arnold McGrath, twenty-seven-year-old University of Saskatchewan graduate, retained Cranbrook constituency for the Liberal party in today's by-election to fill the vacant seat in the British Columbia Legislature.

McGrath won in a three-cornered contest against Thomas O'Connor, Co-operative Commonwealth Federation, and A. B. Smith, who offered as an Independent Liberal.

Fourteen polls out of sixteen gave McGrath 1,717 votes, O'Connor 1,261, and Smith, 372. The two polls to be heard from are small.

The seat was made vacant by the resignation of F. M. MacPherson, who had held it since 1928 but who resigned recently to take an appointment to the Dominion Transport

Guards Fight In Wintry Weather On French Front

Renewed German Activity Thought to Cover Final Preparations for Offensive in Force—Troop And Plane "Concentrations" Reported—Snow and Sleet Fall in Various Parts

PARIS, Oct. 26 (P).—French and German advance guards fought in snow, sleet and heavy rain tonight along the 100-mile northern flank of the Western Front as French commanders studied Nazi outpost lines seeking information concerning a possible German offensive.

Military observers believe on the renewed German activity was designed to cover final preparations for an offensive in force, either a frontal assault on the Maginot Line or a flanking attack through Switzerland or the Netherlands.

While some French military men still expressed doubt that a German offensive would be launched this late in the year, new attention was riveted on the possibility of a flank attack as a result of developments in neutral countries protecting the wings of the French armies on the Western Front.

CONTROL COMMUNICATIONS
Reports reaching Paris from The Netherlands, Belgium and Switzerland said the Germans today suddenly established a rigid control of communications to those countries.

KING INSPECTS GUN FACTORY

His Majesty Spends Two Hours Watching Production of Big Guns

LONDON, Oct. 26 (P).—The King journeyed overnight to a point "somewhere in England" to inspect a gun factory and, incidentally, got a glimpse of maritime humor.

The King smiled when he saw chalked on a piece of heavy machinery the words: "Hitler wanted under the 1,000-ton press."

The factory was one of Britain's newest and most up-to-date Royal Ordnance works. With Engineer Vice-Admiral Sir Harold Brown, director-general of munitions production at the Ministry of Supply, in attendance, the King spent more than two hours in the building, seeing production of guns and watching giant presses handling nineteen-ton steel billets from which gun barrels and breech rings are forged.

IS TOLD OF PRODUCTION
His Majesty heard some of the secret figures of the total output of munitions in Great Britain. The factory, less than three years old, since 1937 has increased the output of its forges alone by more than 500 per cent, the King was told.

The number of employees is now twelve times that of two years ago. The men looked up from the machines and forges to find the King watching them. His Majesty was particularly interested in 1,500-ton forcing presses which stamp the heated metal into rough shapes for barrels and breech rings.

His Majesty wore the uniform of a field marshal. He talked to many of the workmen.

MAKES GENEROUS GIFT
NEW DELHI, Oct. 26 (P).—The Maharajah of Gondal today sent the equivalent of $7,000 ($31,260) to the Viewers the Marquess of Linlithgow, for distribution among the dependents of victims of the sinking of the British battleship Royal Oak by a German submarine.

War News In Brief

By The Canadian Press

LONDON—Viscount Halifax says that Russia would not have invaded Poland if the Reich had not "set the example." Prime Minister Chamberlain says that the nation is ready for "war to the finish."

MOSCOW—Russia announces release of City of Flint, but fails to specify whether it is United States or German; informed sources say that vessel sailed under American flag.

BERLIN—Germans expect City of Flint to reach a Reich port in few days with submarine convoy.

PARIS—French ready for possible Nazi large scale attack; see possible preparations for flank attack in new German control of communications with Western neighbors.

HELSINKI—Finland declares Russia's demands still unacceptable.

Rescue Ship Lands Crew At Gibraltar

GIBRALTAR, Oct. 26 (P).—The American freighter Crown City today arrived here with thirty-one crewmen of the British vessel Ledbury, which was torpedoed eight miles off Gibraltar on Tuesday. The rescued British seamen said a German submarine sank their ship.

The 5,428-ton Crown City, owned by the United States Maritime Commission, put into Gibraltar especially to land Captain Norman Rice and his crew, rescued without a casualty.

REPEAL FORCES SHOW STRENGTH

New Arms Ban Proposal Defeated in United States Senate by 55 to 27

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (P).—Administration forces won by a two to one majority today the first test of strength on the crux of President Roosevelt's neutrality programme—repeal of the arms embargo.

The vote, 55-27, came on an amendment proposed by Senator Downey (Democrat-California), which would have forbidden munitions sales to all foreign nations, neutrals or belligerents, in peacetime or war, except states of the Western Hemisphere at war with non-American nations.

LITTLE CHANGE EXPECTED

Both sides agreed the vote was a test of strength and that, when the Senate ballots on the question in another form—that of a motion to strike the repeal clause from the pending legislation—the roll call tally list would look very much as it did today.

The final ballot may come tomorrow. The Senate adopted one amendment—Senator Tobey (Republican-New Hampshire) to forbid the use of the United States flag by belligerent merchant ships—and rejected another—by Senator Danaher (Republican-Connecticut) to forbid the sale of poison gas or flame-throwers to the belligerents.

Ontario to Suspend Municipal Elections For Two-Year Period

Legislation to Be Introduced for Moratorium on Municipal Politics for Duration of War—Important Savings Are Expected

TORONTO, Oct. 26 (P).—Premier Hepburn announced today suspension of municipal elections in Ontario after January 1, 1940, for a two-year period or "for the duration of the war if that be longer."

Hon. Eric Cross, Minister of Municipal Affairs, issued a supplementary statement, explaining the policy. He said it would effect important municipal savings. At the same time he urged electors to be sure to place in office at the coming elections representatives of the highest possible calibre.

EXPLAINS ANNOUNCEMENT
This will create a moratorium on municipal politics for the duration of the war," Mr. Cross said. "This announcement is made so that, at the approaching municipal elections, the electors may place in office strong and efficient councils who can direct the full resources of their communities toward the prosecution of the war."

The Minister of Municipal Affairs said that necessary legislation will be introduced at the next session of the Legislature.

Mr. Cross said that similar legislation was passed in Britain during the Great War and is again before the British House of Commons.

Wreck of German Submarine Washed Up on Goodwin Sands—Seven of Twelve German Aircraft Fail to Return—Chamberlain Accepts Ribbentrop Challenge to Finish Fight

Labor Leaders Anxious for Better Russian Relations

LONDON, Oct. 26 (P).—Striking air and sea successes cheered Britons tonight as they discussed Prime Minister Chamberlain's outspoken remark in the House of Commons that there could be but one reply to Germany's actions and "we are prepared to give it."

The shattered wreck of a German submarine was washed up on the Dover Strait shoals, called "Goodwin Sands," this evening; and at almost the same time the Air Ministry announced that at least seven of twelve German aircraft failed to return to their home bases after an unsuccessful attack upon a British convoy in the North Sea last Saturday.

"As announced at the time, we had no losses," added the Air Ministry's communique on the air attack.

President Roosevelt Accuses Political Orators of Perpetrating Fake

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (P).—President Roosevelt, striking out at critics who charge his foreign policy may lead the United States to war, accused them tonight of perpetrating "one of the worst fakes in current history."

In and out of Congress, he said, orators have been "beating their breasts and proclaiming against sending the boys of American mothers to fight on the battlefields of Europe."

"SHAMELESS FAKE"
Mr. Roosevelt said in a broadcast address this is "a shameless and dishonest fake." No person in any post of responsibility anywhere in the United States, he said, has ever suggested United States youth be sent to fight abroad.

The President's speech, made as the Senate neared final action on his proposal to repeal arms embargo, was delivered from the White House under auspices of The New York Herald-Tribune Forum on "The War's Challenge to the United States."

PRaises PRESS
The President also praised the "Majority of the press and the radio" for "objective reporting" of the international situation. He said this had worked so well he wished "for more of it in the field of domestic news."

After repeating that the United States is neutral and does not intend to get involved in the war, the President said:

Conscription Is Planned In Rhodesia

SALISBURY, Southern Rhodesia, Oct. 26 (P).—Prime Minister G. M. Huggins, of Southern Rhodesia, today announced his Government intends to ask Parliament for power to enforce general conscription with overseas service.

The Government will move to enforce the conscription measure through an amendment to the Emergency Powers Defence Act, Mr. Huggins said.

SAYS RUSSIANS MEXICAN THREAT

Diego Rivera Declares Soviet Is Acquiring Foothold Dangerous To United States

DALLAS, Oct. 26 (P).—In a copy-right story from Mexico City, The Dallas News tonight quoted Diego Rivera, Mexican muralist, as saying he could "put his finger on documentary evidence to prove that Russia is acquiring a foothold in Mexico that, if not broken, may cause the United States more headaches than any war in Europe ever could."

"The current political race in Mexico is being used in the effort of the Stalinists to get the upper hand through the use of money and services of the Stalinist organization in Mexico," The News quoted Rivera.

The muralist further was quoted as saying Stalinists are in important jobs in various governmental departments.

Aviation Unit Urges Use of Province for Training Air Pilots

Representative Council to Conduct Survey of Facilities and Suggest That Federal Government Make Use of Many Advantages Offered

A SURVEY of aviation training facilities in the province for young men will be made by the British Columbia Aviation Council, and the Federal Government will be urged to take full advantage of the many opportunities offered to create flying schools, it was unanimously decided during the annual convention of the council at the City Hall yesterday.

Thirty-nine delegates representing twenty-one municipalities and ten boards of trade attended the meeting. The city was represented by Mayor Andrew McGavin and Aldermen Archie Wills and John A. Worthington. Alderman Halford D. Wilson, Vancouver, was the chairman.

In extending a welcome to delegates, Mayor McGavin was gratified to see that so many municipalities were deeply interested in aviation problems. He hoped the convention would hear from B. W.

training and airplane manufacture centre. In conclusion, Alderman Wilson urged all municipalities and boards of trade interested in the promotion of aviation to affiliate with the council.

By-laws of the council, drawn up by Alderman Sullivan, were adopted. Amendments made included power to name an honorary president and vice-president. Elimination of the right of directors to borrow money, and extension of the executive to include ten members.

TO CONDUCT SURVEY

On motion of W. A. Rundle, Vancouver Board of Trade, it was agreed to survey training facilities for young airmen in the province. The executive was empowered to act.

Mr. Mayhew informed the council that R.C.A.F. recruiting stations had been established in several parts of the province. He thought that technical schools could be of great assistance in aviation training.

He urged the council to do all in its power to secure airplane factories for British Columbia. He said it was not a question of how many orders a factory could secure, but of how many planes it could complete.

LAND EXPROPRIATION

A report on the expropriation of land for airport purposes was presented by Alderman Harry J. Sullivan, K.C., New Westminster. In such cases he believed each municipality would have to petition the Provincial Legislature for specific acts.

Reeve R. M. Grauer, Richmond, and Alderman P. W. Scott, Kamloops, were named members of the credentials committee. S. Brice, city clerk of Chilliwack, was appointed auditor. His report showed annual receipts of $425, with expenditures totaling $148.65, and a cash amount of $240.35.

Mr. Mayhew, E. G. Rowbottom, deputy minister of trade and industry, and R. Carter Guest, of the Department of Transport, were introduced by the chairman.

Alderman Wilson reported that twenty-three municipalities and boards of trade had been kept posted on aviation matters during the past year. He had been given to understand that expansion of air routes in the province would stand in abeyance during the war.

ROUTE ABANDONED

He regretted that the Vancouver-Okanagan Valley experimental air route had been abandoned, but was pleased to note that the Technical High School at Vancouver offered aviation training and ground school work. In his opinion, air mail contracts had proved an incentive to establish new routes in the province.

Alderman Wilson related that the services of the aviation council had been offered to the Federal Government at the outbreak of war. He urged council members to lose no time in presenting the advantages of the province as an aviation was asked to investigate points raised by Alderman Worthington.

Privateers Return to Work After Mediation

On motion of Mr. Rundle, it was decided to urge the Department of Transport to provide regular summaries of air conditions between the Mainland and the West Coast of Vancouver Island.

Appointment of Edwin T. Orr as secretary-treasurer was confirmed by the convention.

and The Netherlands, these advances said, were interrupted for more than four hours and communication was re-established only under strict supervision. Dispatches from Berne, Switzerland, said Swiss calls were placed under the same control at the same time.

Dispatches from Amsterdam told of "important" troop and plane concentrations along the German coast east of The Netherlands.

(The German Government announced in Berlin new restrictions on communications with points outside Germany. Private calls to foreign countries will not be accepted without a special permit and telegrams are to be censored. Newspaper correspondents were reported exempt. No reason for the restrictions was given.)

SHOCK DIVISIONS

French scouts, who slashed through ice-coated barbed wire and dropped into shell holes filled with icy rain water to watch movements of the Germans, reported shock divisions all the way from the Luxembourg border to the Rhine in jump-off positions.

Each division was said to be flanked by squadrons of tanks and protected by special anti-tank units. Airdromes behind the Siegfried Line were reported filled with pursuit, attack and bombardment planes.

The first blows were struck as French raiding parties snaked their

SEEKS ADVICE OF COMMITTEE

Oak Bay Council Believes War May Affect Transportation Question

The Oak Bay Council last night decided to request a report from the intermunicipal committee as to whether the committee considered it wise to go ahead with negotiations for a new transportation system in view of the war in Europe. Several new conditions brought about by the war and affecting the franchise were discussed by the council before the decision was made.

Notice of a reduction in the electric light rates covering the whole of the municipality was received by the council from the B.C. Electric Railway Company. A letter of thanks and appreciation was ordered to be sent to the company.

A question from the Oak Bay Municipal Employees' Association as to steps to be taken in the case of employees called up for duty with the militia was referred to the committee of the whole council.

SPECIAL GRANT MADE

A special $500 grant to the Royal Jubilee Hospital was provided and $50 will be paid to the city of Victoria to assist with entertainment expenses in connection with the recent Union of British Columbia Municipalities convention. A request from the Victoria Junior Chamber of Commerce for $50 to assist in the annual lighting contest was refused.

A by-law amending the old requirements for fire permits was read. The new by-law states that a permit must be obtained before any fire may be lighted on any beach in the municipality. During the winter months persons intending to light fires in the open air must first notify the fire department.

"I cannot assure you that no decision regarding a settlement will be made without you and your Diet (parliament) having the opportunity of considering it and expressing your opinion," he said.

NO ENTANGLEMENTS

He said Finland could not "entangle herself with any of the belligerents or groups of great powers, nor can she be involved in any combination which would be considered inimical to any other state."

Finland, he said, could not make an agreement which would make it possible for her to be used in an unneutral manner.

LONDON, Oct. 26 (CP).—The directors of the Bank of England decided today to lower the bank rate from 3 to 2 per cent. A previous reduction, from 4 to 3 per cent, was made September 28.

Interesting Talks Heard

At their annual dinner meeting, held last night in St. Mary's Hall, Oak Bay, members of St. Mary's Men's Guild were hosts to the Oak Bay United Church Men's Guild. About eighty were present, including the Dean of Columbia.

The principal speaker of the evening was B. A. McKelvie, who spoke on the history of "Brother Twelve." Talks were also given by Archdeacon A. de L. Nunn, Herbert Anson, M.P.P., and Reeve R. R. Taylor, of Oak Bay. A toast to the King was proposed and community songs followed. Solos by Dudley Wickett and H. C. Corbett were heard. Mr. P. Waters proposed a toast to the guests, which was responded to by J. B. Clearhugh, K.C. Captain Dexter thanked the speakers and singers.

thought as well as in act is, as I have said before, impossible of fulfillment because again the people of this country, thinking things through calmly and without prejudice, have been and are making up their minds about relative merits of current events on other continents.

"It is a fact increasingly manifest that presentation of real news has sharpened the minds and the judgment of men and women everywhere in these days of real public discussion—and we Americans begin to know the difference between the truth on the one side and the falsehood on the other. No matter how often the falsehood is iterated and reiterated, repetition does not transform a lie into a truth."

Community Chest Campaign Begins

On November 13

November 13 to 24 is the period set aside for the joint appeal to be made this year by the Community Chest and the Red Cross Society. The campaign objective is set at $100,000, "for the support of civilian welfare services which must carry on whether the country is at peace or war, and for the support of the Red Cross Society for relief of victims of war and related distress."

The campaign headquarters will be at 1205 Government Street, and over 600 citizens have already volunteered their services to help.

At the suggestion of J. I. Parker, Kamloops, it was decided to urge the Meteorological Service of Canada to place a plane in service between Williams Lake and the United States border to give periodical radio weather reports.

Walter Gilbert, Vancouver superintendent of Canadian Airways, Ltd., stated that the aviation council was of great value to commercial flying, and of prime importance to the future of aviation in the Province.

AIR AMBULANCES

Alderman Worthington suggested that the Provincial Government be urged to aid the British Columbia Hospitals' Association by establishing an air ambulance service in certain districts. Alderman Wilson replied that many ill and injured persons were regularly flown to hospitals. Alderman Worthington proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the chairman for his active service to the council.

Votes of thanks were passed to officers of the council, the press, Mayor Andrew McGavin and the City Council, Department of Transport, postal authorities, Department of Trade and Industry and to Mr. Mayhew.

Council officers re-elected were Alderman Wilson, president; Mayor T. A. Love, first vice-president; Alderman Sullivan, secretary-treasurer, and Mr. Rundle, Mayor V. B. Harrison, Mayor A. M. Patterson and Alderman Archie Wills, members of the executive. New executive members added were Mayor C. A. Barber, Alderman J. H. Horn and Alderman F. W. Scott.

INSPECT PLANES

Mr. Guest gave a brief summary of weather reports received for Trans-Canada Airways. In referring to commercial flying, he stated that rates, personnel and equipment had to be approved by the Department of Transport.

Alderman Worthington wanted to know if proposed plane factories in the Province would assemble machines from parts or plan and engine. Alderman Wilson replied there was no reason why engines could not be manufactured instead of being imported as at present. He was sure a great opportunity existed in the Province for the manufacture of planes. At his suggestion, the incoming executive

4 Facts You Should Know about Vitamins and Fresh Yeast

Read why the New High-Vitamin Yeast gives more complete results than vitamins alone... how the "booster action" of the yeast itself can help the body use the vitamins you eat more fully

1 EXTRA VITAMINS—more than you get in many ordinary meals—are needed by great numbers of people, studies indicate.

If you have severe colds that "hang on," you likely need more Vitamin A.

If you are nervous and have poor digestion, it often shows more "Nerve" Vitamin B is needed.

Plenty of Vitamin D is needed for the body's proper use of the calcium and phosphorus in your food—an essential for sound bones and teeth.

Tiring easily, lack of pep may show you need more "Vitality" Vitamin G.

2 SLOW DIGESTION may affect you—like many others—and may cut down the body's assimilation of vitamins eaten. If this is not stimulated you may fail to get as much good from the vitamins you eat as you should.

3 THE NEW HIGH-VITAMIN YEAST helps to stimulate slow digestion, increase the flow of digestive juices in the stomach. This better digestion can help you make fuller use of the vitamins eaten. It "boosts" their assimilation.

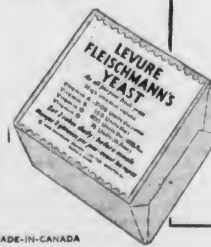

4 TWO BENEFITS are offered by Fleischmann's High-Vitamin Yeast. It gives rich amounts of 4 vitamins—A, B, D and G, plus the "booster action" of fresh yeast. By stimulating slow digestion, it gives more complete results than vitamins alone.

Don't fail to get the full good from vitamins you eat. Get your extra vitamins this effective way—in Fleischmann's new High-Vitamin Yeast. Start eating it regularly—today!

2 cakes a day of Fleischmann's High-Vitamin Yeast give you:

VITAMIN A—6200 Units (Int.)
VITAMIN B₁—300 Units (Int.)
VITAMIN D—800 Units (Int.)
VITAMIN G—150 Units (Sh. Bour.)

All the average person needs (in addition to his meals) of A, B and D—and a rich supply of the Vitality Vitamin G. Eat one cake about ½ hour before breakfast or lunch and one cake ½ hour before supper—plain or in a little water or milk.

FALSE PRETENCES CASE DISMISSED

David Webster Is Acquitted In Saanich Court—Second
Count Withdrawn

A charge of obtaining money
under false pretences against David Webster was dismissed by Magistrate Henry C. Hall in the Saanich police court yesterday. A second charge of stealing a cheque, made out for $10, was withdrawn by R.

S. Twining, prosecuting counsel.
Webster was alleged to have obtained $10 from Frank Evans, of the Gorge Grocery, by means of a cheque made payable to another man. A delivery boy for the grocery store identified the accused as the man who gave him the cheque.
James H. Beatty, handwriting expert, called by defence counsel,

Stuart Henderson, examined copies of Webster's handwriting, taken in court, and compared them with an address on the cheque. The witness said that in his opinion the writing on the cheque was not Webster's,
although it would have been preferable to compare a sample of the defendant's handwriting secured before he was called in court.
Magistrate Hall said that in spite of the strong evidence against the accused he had to give him the benefit of the doubt, and dismissed the charge.

Speculation Starts On Possible Choices For Quebec Cabinet

Premier-Elect Godbout to Have Sixty-Six Followers
In Legislature—Premier Duplessis Left With Only Fifteen Supporters in the House

QUEBEC, Oct. 26 (P)—The return to French-Canada of a Liberal Administration brought speculation tonight over the choice of Ministers Premier-Elect Adélard Godbout will make for the new Provincial Cabinet.

From the forty-seven-year-old Liberal leader, Quebec's Premier for two months in 1936, there was no indication who would be called to sit with him in the Executive Council.

Mr. Godbout left his Quebec city home today to rest in the country after the arduous campaign which ended in victory yesterday for himself and sixty-six followers, and possibly to give thought to the make-up of his Cabinet.

Political observers believed the Liberal leader, a scientific leader, would again take up the Agricultural Portfolio in addition to the Premiership.

Two men were prominently mentioned to succeed Premier Duplessis as Attorney-General. Elected in yesterday's victory for the Liberals were Valmore Bienvenue, K.C., former Quebec Crown prosecutor, and Fernand Choquette, lawyer and Laval University professor.

GIVEN FIFTH TERM
Mentioned as new Provincial Secretary were Leon Casgrain, re-elected for his fifth consecutive term in Kamouraska—Riviere du Loup; and Athanas David, who was elected in Terrebonne and once was Quebec's Secretary.

The electorate gave the new administration a choice of two for the Roads Ministry. P. E. Cote, who held the portfolio in the Taschereau Government, was elected in Bonaventure after resigning his House of Commons seat for the same riding
to enter the provincial campaign.

P. J. LeDuc, noted highway engineer and Union Nationale Roads
Minister until his ouster from the Duplessis Cabinet in 1938, was re-
elected in Laval as a Liberal.

T. D. Bouchard, re-elected in St.
Hyacinthe where as mayor for the past twenty-two years he made for himself a reputation as an outstanding municipal administrator, was considered a likely choice for the portfolio of Municipal Affairs.

PROVINCIAL TREASURER
The Provincial Treasurer was expected to be a traditional choice
from among the newly-elected English-speaking Legislature members.

P. J. LeDuc, noted highway engineer and Union Nationale Roads
Minister until his ouster from the Duplessis Cabinet in 1938, was re-
elected in Laval as a Liberal.

Porto Columbia— Pubs, Toads Diamonds and Gold En Route for Rio

By Spy

Palatially and pleasantly the Brazilian cruised along, and by November 2, her second port had been visited and left politely in the hands of Fate. It's name was Porto Columbia. Fundamentally, it was the port of entry to Baranquilla about eighteen miles inland but actually, it was nothing but an old hundred shacks and mud huts
sprinkled over a soggy, marshy land fairly whistled with the heat.

It was rather a deceitful little burgh, because of a four-thousand-and-foot concrete pier, complete with railroad tracks and an important-looking traveling crane, that suggested that behind all this inexpensive machinery, must lie
a city of some substance. That pier, however, was built by the Baranquilla Railway for coffee-distribution from the interior, and is in no way connected to Porto Columbia.

The absence of a "pop-dispenser" on the pier before moving on toward where the "hub of the city's activities" might be madly whirling. City centre, however, seemed only to be a "Y" in the railroad track, where practically the whole town foregathered. Some squatted on the rails; others played card-games on the ties with beer and peanuts handy; and others actually snored, stretched out like so many large ebony sausages between the rails.

There were no proper streets in Porto Columbia; just muddy ravines that divided the various rows of houses, and in those ravines, garbage sewage, and naked picnics were rolled in sweet equality. I felt quite ill watching those gnome-bellied youngsters romping in those putrid rills; but despite putrescence and odors so violent as to be both visible and audible, those brown imps all looked as crisp and healthy as celery on ice.

After a while I discovered the main street in which were pubs to the taste of all nations. There were nothing but pubs, and if there had been room for more pubs, then, all I can say is that there would have been more and yet more pubs. There was the "Spanish Bar," the "German Bar," the "American Bar," the "Mexican Bar," the "Victorian Bar,"
the "English Bar," the "French Bar," and "Mike's Place," "Dutch's Place," "Joe's Place," and so on, until the very street seemed to reel and burp
and then burst into the sobbing chords and sentimentalities of
"Sweet Adeline."

Leaving Alcohol Row, and slightly curried by downtown Porto Columbia, I decided to roam in exile
among the surrounding hills.

Those hills were about as villanous as the town. They seemed composed wholly of stiff red mud, without a vestige of grass or turf.
Scrubby trees, which were nothing less than stationary porcupines, grew just close enough to make their passing painful; and all around and amongst them, hopped myriads of enormous lizards.

So with toads, mud and prickles,
I flopped and floundered about for nearly an hour—saw nothing but half a dozen wire-thin, desolate looking crows—then got thoroughly fed up and began skating through the mud back to town in "full nose"
for coffee and a shower.

In a tavern carded with "English Spoken" the proprietor cringed his sorrow that "no coffee—the coffee has not been here." I then asked him about Porto Columbia, and amongst other things he pronounced succinctly that it was one of the greatest gold-producing ports in South America. That about piece of news only thickened my suspicions about this rather tottery little township, so I thanked him and he then pointed out the "Hotel Espana," as a possibility for coffee.

By the grace of St. Christopher,
in the "Hotel Espana" a hexagonal little hotel with a screeching tin gramophone, and sputtering every two feet on the concrete floor a dark in a jockey cap with a peak eight inches long, produced coffee of surprising excellence.

That coffee had a nice mellowing effect—at least mellowing enough to re-ignite fresh curiosity about the district—particularly about the long building entitled "El Capitan," visible through the window. The water in the jockey cap spoke no English, but presently coaxed over a gaunt, liver-hued person from a nearby table.

In a sour scrappy voice he explained that "El Capitan" was merely a bathing establishment, adding with apparent vindictive relish that "of course, hee deee not pay." I then questioned him about my freshly-acquired knowledge re the local gold output, whereupon his lips curled, 8-wise as he snarled: "Pah! there is no gold here! No, there is nothing—just nothing. He dies, these place. He always dies. But there are diamonds. Yes!" and with that spectacular announcement a sharp ping indicated that he'd at least scored an "outer" on the run of the nearest spittoon.

Half-blinded by the brilliance of so many diamonds, I slowly slipped coffee and gazed toward the ocean.
It was rather pleasant. Diamonds dipped in coffee seems to stroke one's entire nerve-system with a silk hand, and infuse a delicious peacefulness upon the cerebral tissues. Darkness, too, was descending like a black loose-knit shawl and out at sea lights were beginning to twinkle on the anchor's ribs, which only deepened my already half-chloroformed condition.

The lights blinked and winked stars then quivered in the almost tangible, blue-black mantle of the

TOOK INTEREST IN SPORT HERE

Joseph Bloom, Secretary of Veterans of France, Dies in Hospital

Joseph Bloom, a well-known and popular figure in sporting and club circles, died yesterday in the Royal Jubilee Hospital. Mr. Bloom had been in ill-health for several months, but had been in hospital for only two days. He was forty-eight years of age.

Mr. Bloom was born in London and was a resident of Victoria for about thirty-five years.

He was secretary of the Veterans of France for twenty years and was very popular with all his associates.
As manager and sponsor of the Victoria City soccer team, he did much to promote football and sportsmanship in the city. Many of the city's best soccer players owe their start in the game and their knowledge of it to Mr. Bloom and his excellent teaching.

He served overseas with the 31st Battalion, C.E.F., and while in France was severely wounded.
Funeral arrangements will be announced later by Hayward's B.C.
Funeral Company.

IF IT'S Borden's IT'S GOT TO BE GOOD

GIRLS, HERE'S A GRAND HOME MADE CANDY RECIPE!

ELsie, THE BORDEN COW, brings you the recipe for an old-fashioned maple cream that you can make easily by this new-fashioned, failure-proof method:

MAGIC PENCUCI
2 cups brown sugar, firmly packed
1 cup water
1 1/2 cups 1 can Eagle Brand
Milk
1 tablespoon butter
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
3/4 cup chopped nut meats (optional)
Mix brown sugar, water and Eagle Brand Milk in a heavy saucepan. Cook over medium flame to 230 F., or until mixture will form ball when tested in cold water. Stir mixture constantly to prevent burning. Remove from fire, add butter, vanilla and chopped nut meats. Beat at once, until thick and creamy. Pour into buttered pan. When cool, cut in squares. Makes 14 squares.

This is just a sample of the delicious things you can make with Eagle Brand... the sweetened condensed milk that's extra-rich, made from fresh whole milk and pure cane sugar. Send for FREE COOK BOOK of MAGIC RECIPES to The Borden Company Limited, Dept. 161, Spadina Crescent, Toronto, Ont.

MODERN GEAR RESPONSIBLE

Depletion of Salmon Runs Due to Present Efficient Fishing Methods

VANCOUVER, Oct. 26 (CP).—Modern efficient fishing gear has greatly depleted the Fraser River salmon runs, Fred Probert, president of the British Columbia Fishermen's Protective Association, today told the Royal Commission which is investigating British Columbia fishing activities.

Convening in Vancouver Court-house after several days' hearing at New Westminster, the commission heard further evidence bearing on the advisability of sealing at the mouth of the Fraser River, and of fish trap operations at Sooke, B.C.

FEW PASS GEAR

Mr. Probert, questioned by Commission Counsel J. M. Coady, held that the inefficiency of nets in pre-war times permitted possibly 85 per cent of the salmon to escape to the spawning grounds, whereas few got by present-day gear operated by a far greater number of fishermen.

He said he had "yet to be convinced" that either purse seines or fish traps could be properly regulated by Fisheries Department guardians so as to insure adequate escapement.

His view was challenged by Mr. Justice Gordon Sloan, commission chairman, who questioned Mr. Probert's assertion that there was "nothing to stop the whole run of San Juan salmon from moving inshore and being taken by the Sooke traps."

The commissioner said that guardians are on duty at Sooke to insure that the forty-eight-hour weekly closing rule was observed.

"The run has never been com-

On the way to England to offer their services to the Royal Air Force, a group of young men and women left Victoria a short time ago for England, the boys to undertake whatever duties they are best suited for, and the girls to do nursing. Miss Dalton, of Vancouver, is a graduate of the General Hospital there, and Miss Dingsdale, of Wellington, hopes to qualify for kindred work. Fred Gordon is from Hedley, Dick Baines, from Victoria; Kenneth Dawson, from Victoria; George Geering, from Pincher Creek, Alta.; and Leroy Campbell, from Victoria. The group went away in the charge of Captain G. A. Duncan, Sanich, retired officer of the Lancaster Fusiliers, who will offer his services again. Arrangements for the departure of the party were made by Captain H. Seymour-Biggs.

pletely intercepted and even the possibility of it could be eliminated by the presence of a guardian empowered to enforce closure," he said.

When Mr. Probert disagreed, Mr. Justice Sloan said it was necessary to assume that the guardians were honest and that fishermen would obey the law.

NEVER ADVANCED
A Shields, president of the Pacific American Fisheries, of Bellingham, Wash., denied before the commission that the existence of fish traps in British Columbia waters was ever advanced as a reason for restoring traps in Washington State.

Fish trap owners of Washington fought abolition of traps, he said, but the British Columbia traps at Sooke did not enter into the picture. He said there was little hope on the part of those trap owners for early restoration of traps in Washington State waters.

At yesterday's session, Mr. Justice Sloan criticized what he called inaccurate information permitted during the Washington State anti-fish trap campaign on the operations of fish traps at Sooke.

He made his criticism after a Seattle witness testified that the Sooke traps played a part in the 1934 campaign which resulted in removal of all fish traps in Washington waters the next year.

"My wife ran away with a Boy Scout leader," he said.

"Wasn't that a violation of the Boy Scout's oath?"

"Oh, no, he did me a good turn!"

HAVE BROKEN ALL RECORDS

Long Beach Endurance Flyers Expect to Remain Aloft Thirty Days

LANCASTER, Calif., Oct. 26 (AP).—Clyde Schaefer and Wes Carroll bettered the unlimited endurance flight record today. At 3:42 p.m. their time in the air exceeded by one hour the record of 653 hours 33 minutes. They said they expected to remain aloft for thirty days.

The Long Beach flyers took their light pontoon-equipped plane into the air on September 29. They plan to terminate their flight next Sunday.

Most of their time aloft has been spent in circling above nearby Roanoke Dry Lake to eliminate the temptation, the flyers said, to alight. Cans of gasoline and oils and other supplies have been hoisted aboard the plane from an automobile speeding along the dry lake bed.

They have surpassed three endurance records. The first, that for seaplanes, was exceeded when they had been aloft thirty hours. They passed the light plane record of 343 hours 46 minutes on October 13. It was set last August by Hunter and Humphrey Moody at Springfield, Ill.

The unlimited class endurance record was established July 1, 1935, by Fred and Al Key, at Meridian, Miss.

PERUSAL OF CUSTOMS SERVICE REPORTS NOT PERMITTED ANY MORE

SEATTLE, Oct. 26 (AP).—The Seattle Merchants' Exchange today announced that, in compliance with regulations more stringent than were imposed by the Government in the Great War, it had ceased compiling statistical reports on cargoes.

The new rules prohibit perusal of customs service reports on cargoes moving into and out of American ports. Great War regulations prohibited their publication only.

DOMINION BOOKS ESPIONAGE STORY

"Espionage Agent" is the timely Warner Bros' film opening today at the Dominion Theatre, with Joel McCrea, Brenda Marshall and Jeffrey Lynn.

It recalls the terrible campaign of sabotage which resulted in the loss of many lives and the destruction of millions of dollars worth of property in the year or two before the United States entered the Great War of 1914-1918.

Stellar names, high in Hollywood's acting ranks, feature the new Warner Bros' picture, "The Angels Wash Their Faces," which will open today at the Atlas Theatre. Featured in the production, which tells the story of a group of tenement slum youngsters are Ann Sheridan, the Dead End Kids, Ronald Reagan, Bonita Granville, Frankie Thomas, Henry O'Neill, Eduardo Ciannelli and others.

CAPITOL Fred MacMurray and Theatre Madeleine Carroll, who teamed for the second time, prove that they are among the screen's peers when it comes to romance. In Paramount's "Honey Moon in Bali," a gay, romantic comedy, which will close at the Capitol Theatre tonight.

COLUMBIA The most unusual THEATRE method ever employed by bank robbers is interestingly revealed in George O'Brien's new RKO-Radio Western, "Trouble in Sundown," which is now showing at the Columbia Theatre. The thrilling story is laid in a roaring frontier town and a nearby "ghost" village.

PLAZA Newscast photographer James Craig and newspaper woman Betty Furness "cover" the war in China and uncover a sinister spy ring in Columbia's timely and action-filled "North of Shanghai," now playing at the Plaza Theatre, with Key Luke, Joseph Downing and Dorothy Gulliver.

OAK BAY The martial bliss of THEATRE Irene Dunne and Fred MacMurray, as they appear in "Invitation to Happiness," is almost shattered by prize fighter MacMurray's ambition to be champion. Poignant drama, rather than violent brawls, marks the tenor of the Paramount film which is now showing at the Oak Bay Theatre.

Upper Harbor Firm Completes Repairs to Coast Service Ss. Nootka

The Victoria Machinery Depot has completed repairs to the B.C. Coast Service Ss. Nootka at its plant in the Upper Harbor. Damage caused by coal gas near Ketchikan, Alaska, necessitated some repairs to oil storage tanks, cargo booms and deck plates.

SCRAP LOADINGS More than 25,000 tons of scrap metal were loading or due to be loaded at Pacific Coast ports last week. At Long Beach the Nordrup took on 7,500 tons of the metal; at Wilmington the Acadia was busy loading another 8,000 tons, while the Mount Olympus was listed to begin loading 10,000 tons, all for Japan.

PASSED AWAY R. H. K. Smith, of San Francisco, brother of the late Sir Charles Kingsford-Smith, passed away in San Francisco during the week. Mr. Smith was for thirty years connected with the American-Hawaiian Steamship Company as director of cargo storage. He was one of the best known and most popular figures along the San Francisco and Oakland waterfronts. He was born in Brisbane, Australia, in May, 1879, and arrived in San Francisco at an early age.

Municipalities' Plan Endorsed by Women In Conference Here

South Vancouver Island Institutes, at Closing Session, Favor Removal of Educational Tax From Land—Mrs. William Peden New President

A RESOLUTION endorsing that passed by the Union of British Columbia Municipalities conference recommending the removal of the education tax from land was supported by the South Vancouver Island Women's Institute conference at the closing session yesterday afternoon.

Other major business included the election of the new executive, with Mrs. William Peden as president, succeeding Mrs. J. L. White. The executive comprises Mrs. Peden and Mesdames I. Cains (Sooke), A. H. Chambers (Saltair), T. C. Johns (Victoria) and M. E. Kinloch (Shawnigan).

The resolution concerning land tax arose from discussion on following Mrs. D. B. F. Bullen's report as convener of education and better schools. Mrs. Thomas, of Cedar, brought in the argument that removal of educational tax on land would allow rural communities to get some form of specialized teaching or helpful transportation. Mrs. V. S. McLachlan, superintendent of B.C. Women's Institutes, recommended the careful reading of the Dr. H. B. King report, in which partial relief in land taxation was recommended.

In her report, the convener of education praised the nursing service for the schools. The standard of education in the Province was generally high, but women should make it their constant care to see that the younger generation was kept from contact with harmful and misleading propaganda, and that there be impressed on them the high ideals of British citizenship.

INDUSTRIES
Supporting British Columbia products meant supporting British Columbia payrolls, said Mrs. Lorna Evans, convener of the standing committee on industries, in her annual report, which covered also the less commercial avenues of industry which were followed in the homes of the Province's women. She thanked Mrs. McLachlan for the help she had given by encouraging women with some of their handicrafts.

Mrs. Kinloch reminded members of the effort to establish a craft cottage, a project only partially realized as yet. Up to the present the enterprise had met with disappointing lack of support both from the buying public and the craft workers. Mrs. T. Johns, of Victoria Institute, and Mrs. McLachlan also spoke in this connection.

The many uses for Vancouver Island wool for sweaters, mittens, bedroom slippers; of flour sacks for tablecloths and tea towels; of sugar sacks for blouses and curtains; of old house dresses for aprons and

Is Convening Bridge Party

MRS. ALFRED CARMICHAEL

Who is convener of the bridge party, in aid of the Red Cross Society, for which Mrs. E. W. Hamer has graciously lent Government House. The event will take place on Wednesday, November 8, beginning at 2:45 p.m. Already 110 tables have been reserved. Play will take place simultaneously in a number of private homes in the city, for the same cause.

Various other devices were cited by Mrs. K. Booth, of Royal Oak, in her report as convener of home economics.

LEGISLATION
In her report on legislation, Mrs. Kinloch spoke of the valuable work done on Provincial acts by study clubs in Victoria and Langford Institutes. Mrs. F. McNaught, Lake Hill, in her report on institute work and method, recommended members to familiarize themselves with parliamentary procedure. Mrs. Ada M. Spicer, Pender Island, gave an outline of the health service supplied through the district health centres and their nurses, urging that some form of traveling clinics might be of great service in some of the more remote districts.

Reading of the Federal Department's annual report on immigration was recommended by Mrs. Peden, convener of the committee on immigration, who looked for good results from the Fairbridge Farm School scheme at Duncan. She expressed approval of the federated conference idea that more ceremony should be made of the occasion of "making of new Canadians" in order to impress upon them significance of the event.

COUNCIL GREETINGS
Dr. Olga Jarine prefaced her greetings from the Local Council of Women with a brief talk on home economics, during which she recommended the institutes to have a trained person discuss with them nutrition and proper feeding of the child, and the use of nutritious substitutes.

Mrs. C. E. Petch, second vice-president of the Federate Women's Institutes, Quebec, was introduced. Mrs. J. L. White presented prizes to the winners in the institute report contest as follows: 1, Craigflower, 1,887 marks; 2, Cedar, 1,888; Third, fourth and fifth places were taken by Deerholm, Lake Hill and Royal Oak, respectively.

CREDIT UNIONS
At the morning session, Norman H. McKenzie, of the University of British Columbia Extension Department, spoke on credit unions, which he maintained were practical and constructive in ideal, planned not merely for the purpose of freeing members from "loan sharks" or for making dividends, but also for making people. Outstanding examples of successful experiments of the kind in Canada were to be found in the Antigonish and Xavier co-operatives in the Maritimes, where the movement started eight years ago. Today 300 flourishing credit unions controlled assets amounting to $935,000, owned by the work people.

Miss Leighton reported on the Otha Scott Fund, which showed a satisfactory balance after assisting selected children for treatment.

Coupled with thanks to the retiring board, Mrs. Peden, incoming president, presented corsage bouquets to Mrs. J. L. White, Mrs. S. W. Webster and Mrs. T. C. Robson.

ENGAGEMENTS
CAMPBELL-SANDERS
The engagement is announced of Norah Josephine, younger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sanders, Vancouver, and Mr. David McKinley Campbell, Berkeley, Cal., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, Victoria. The wedding will take place in Berkeley, in November.

I.O.D.E. Activities
Esquimalt Chapter
The Mary Croft Esquimalt Chapter will hold a special meeting at 3 p.m. Monday, October 30, at headquarters. Arrangements will be made for the bridge tea and also for obtaining wool for Red Cross purposes.

Busy Month Completed By Chapter

Silent tribute was paid to the memory of the late Miss Hall, of the Bishop Cridge Ministering Chapter, at the monthly meeting of Municipal Chapter, I.O.D.E., held at headquarters yesterday afternoon, with Mrs. K. C. Symons, the regent, in the chair.

Mrs. Gordon Smith reported that between two and three hundred pounds, consisting of 440 new warm articles of clothing, had been dispatched for evacuated children in the Old Country. Mrs. Smith received $46.50, which was used to purchase part of the new clothing.

Thanks to the C.P.R. freight department, Victoria Baggage Company and Fairbanks-Morse for their co-operation in sending the clothing were expressed by the members.

WAR CLASSES
Mrs. Gaetz, reporting for the emergency committee, outlined the classes in the St. John Ambulance Corps, hospital supplies, Red Cross work, and campaign work, in which an appeal was made for magazines, cigarettes, game, and cards, which may be left at headquarters. Mrs. A. H. C. Phipps was appointed convener for Poppy Day, and asked that lists of taggers be sent to her by December 1. Mrs. F. F. Beckett, educational secretary, asked that chapters notify Mrs. Aubrey Kent of the number of calendars needed. An appeal from the Sayward Lower School for library books was made. Mrs. J. T. Jones, Echoes secretary, asked that chapter notes be sent in not later than October 31.

The standard-bearer, Mrs. J. W. Cashmore, reported that Municipal and three primary centres were represented at the memorial service of the 16th Canadian Scottish held in Pioneer Square. A letter from the Girl Guides offering to assist in any wartime activity was read. Mrs. Symons reported for the Navy League, and told of the desire to start a sailors' home in Esquimalt. She also reported that the Provincial I.O.D.E. Shield had been presented by Mrs. Curtis Sampson to the Sea Cadets.

MEETING AT NANAIMO
Mrs. Symons will represent the chapter at the semi-annual meeting to be held in Nanaimo on November 8. Mrs. E. Eve is in charge of the transportation and announced that a bus will leave Victoria at 9:30 a.m. on that day. Members were asked to telephone Mrs. Eve at E-2117 immediately for reservations.

The report of the film convener was presented by Mrs. Wilson, and announcement was made that the picture, "Sixty Glorious Years," had been retitled "Queen of Destiny" and will be released about Christmas time.

The next meeting will be held on November 23, at 7:30 p.m., at headquarters.

LUXTON DANCE

An old-time dance will be held in Luxton Hall on Wednesday, November 1, at 9 o'clock, under the auspices of the hall committee. This will be the opening dance of the Winter season. Refreshments will be served.

Huge Crowd Attends Elaborate Festival Given to Aid China

Rice Bowl Festival Opened by Mayor McGavin—Curios Exhibited in Interesting Display—Lion Dance Is a Feature

NEARLY 2,000 persons attended the Rice Bowl Festival held yesterday in the Chinese Benevolent Association building and grounds, Fisgard Street, and witnessed the festivities in connection with the official opening. The evening's programme opened with the singing of "O Canada," followed by the Chinese National Anthem sung by the Chinese school children. Mr. Joseph Hope, who acted as chairman, introduced the speakers, whose short addresses were prefaced by a prayer for peace by Rev. J. C. Cody, Bishop of Victoria.

Mayor Andrew McGavin spoke of the festival as a fine example of the Chinese people in devoting one-third of the festival's proceeds to the Red Cross Society. Mrs. G. M. Tripp, secretary of the Committee for Medical Aid for China; Dr. D. M. Baillie, Miss Sara Spencer and Professor E. S. Farr spoke briefly.

Messages from the Consul-General for China in Ottawa and the Consul-General for China to British Columbia, in Vancouver. Mr. Hope spoke of the pleasure it gave the committee to welcome Rev. Ivan Wang, of Vancouver.

Mr. Mar Leung announced the programme numbers, the first being the celebrated and spectacular Lion Dance. This was followed by other beautiful comforter made of embroidered rose silk, and filled with raw silk in place of the more usual wool or down. Because of its perishable color and fine texture, it is shown in a camphor wood chest covered with cellophane. An embroidered Chinese tablecloth, valued at $600, is another lovely exhibit.

In addition to rare old Chinese prints, a brush pen painting by a celebrated Chinese artist, and fine needlework pictures on silk, there are beautiful embroideries. There is also a collection of rare jade and carved jade and carved ivory, teak and ebony figures, among which is a carving of the God of Longevity, model of a Chinese junk, perfect in every detail, carved soapstone; and rare porcelains, cloisonne and Poochow lacquer.

OF HISTORIC INTEREST

In a glass case stands a group of legendary figures carved from a single piece of wood, which was brought here eighty years ago. Another noteworthy carving is an amber wood effigy which is 2,000 years old. The wood was found buried in the tomb of the King of Nan Yuet and removed to Canton, where for three years craftsmen worked on it.

Framed on the wall is a letter written by Madame Chiang Kai-Shek to the members of the Canadian Youth Association, thanking them for their help and interest in China. A four-leaf cake, made forty years ago in Victoria and elaborately decorated, was the object of much interest.

In the hallway is a collection of war souvenirs, which include many badges, posters, and articles of the uniform of Japanese soldiers. One of the interesting relics is the thousand-hand beam, a piece of cloth on which one thousand Japanese women each sewed a single stitch. This cloth was given to the Japanese soldier to preserve him from harm.

In another room an effective Oriental setting is devoted to the shrine of Pei-Ti, the god of Northern heaven, one of China's prophets. Round about the room, hand-carved chairs, ceremonial embroideries and spears add a brilliant touch of color. A display of model airplanes made by young Chinese boys attracted attention in the entrance hall.

TEA ARRANGEMENTS

Upstairs in Oriental setting, tea was served throughout the afternoon and evening, and round about the large hall, the booths of home-made candies, cakes, waffles, curries and novelties did a thriving business.

Mrs. Jack Yip, representing the Chinese women, and Mrs. G. M. Tripp, representing the Canadian Friends of the Chinese People and the Medical Aid to China, welcomed the guests. Mrs. Wai Quan and Miss Eileen Dumbleton were in charge of the tea arrangements, the tea tables being decorated with chrysanthemums and the guests attended by a group of attractive Chinese girls wearing their long silk Chinese dresses.

CHINESE ORCHESTRA

At intervals while tea was being served, musical selections and dances added to the enjoyment of the guests in the upstairs hall, while below in the grounds a ten-piece

Chinese orchestra, and selections from Chinese operas and plays, Chinese dancers and magicians attracted many onlookers. A snatched theatre had been erected, and, near by, games were in progress.

A temple bell, brought to Victoria eighty years ago from China for the first Chinese temple in British Columbia, is on exhibition, and stalls of fruits and vegetables are ranged round the playground walls. The festival will continue today and tomorrow.

WEDDINGS

COTTON-MAYHEW

The wedding took place recently at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. Dr. W. J. Sippell, of Grace Mayhew, only daughter of Major and Mrs. W. H. Mayhew, of Moose Jaw, to Mr. Wilfred Cotton, eldest son of Mrs. A. E. Cotton, 141 Cambridge Street. The bride was attended by Miss Lois Patterson, of Moose Jaw, and the groom was supported by his brother, Mr. William Cotton.

BERNARD-BOUCH

A quiet wedding took place on Monday evening at the Manse, Rev. A. McLean officiating, when Gertrude Ida (Bobbie) youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. Bouch, of Ganegs, was united in marriage to Mr. Robert John Bernard, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. F. Bernard, of Detroit. The ceremony was attended only by relatives and close friends. After a reception at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Bouch, of Grex Central, the young couple left for the South.

MARSHALL-HEAL

St. Paul's Church, Sidney, at 7:30 o'clock last evening, was the scene of a pretty wedding, when Elizabeth, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Heal, Saanichton, was united in marriage to Mr. Leonard Ralph Marshall, youngest son of Mrs. J. Marshall and the late Mr. Marshall, Saanichton.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Percy Willis and Rev. D. M. Perley, in a setting of gladioli, dahlias and chrysanthemums, arranged in tall baskets on each side of the altar. The guest pews were tied with white satin ribbon, the church having been decorated by friends of the bride.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride made an attractive picture in her gown of white satin, and a lace yoke with border of pearls and Elizabethan collar. Her embroidered tulle veil was worn coronet fashion, and held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Her shower bouquet was of white carnations, pink roses and ferns.

Miss Nancy Jeffrey was maid of honor, wearing a floor-length dress of peach net and hat to match, and carrying a spray of gladioli, white chrysanthemums and ferns. Miss Phyllis Heal, sister of the bride, and Miss Joyce Heal, her cousin, were the bridesmaids, both wearing peach taffeta dresses with hats to match, and carrying sprays of white chrysanthemums. The two little flower girls were Norma Nunn and Shirley Reading, both in long powder blue dresses, with pretty doll hats to

MRS. DENNIS D. SWEETING

Formerly Miss Doreen McGregor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. M. McGregor, Granite Street, Oak Bay, photographed in her wedding gown after her marriage at St. Luke's Church, Winnipeg. The chrysanthemums used in the decoration of Capt. and Mrs. Maurice McGregor's house for the reception were picked in the McGregor's garden here and flown to Winnipeg for the occasion, the ferns having been gathered at Goldstream.

match, and carrying posies of carnations and pom-pom dahlias. The groom was supported by his cousin, Mr. Sidney Beavie. The wedding march was played by Mrs. P. Brethour, and during the signing of the register Mrs. Mason sang "Because."

A reception was held at the Agricultural Hall, Saanichton, which had been decorated for the occasion with pink and white streamers and a profusion of fall flowers. The bride and groom stood beneath a floral arch, and were assisted in receiving the guests by the bride's mother, in a powder blue dress, with hat and accessories to match, and by the groom's mother, in a black dress with hat and accessories to match. Both wore bouquets of roses and violets.

A three-tier wedding cake centred the supper table, which had been decorated by Mrs. Devereux, with pink tapers in silver holders on each side, and silver vases of pink and white chrysanthemums. After a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall will reside at Moose Bay Road, Bagan Bay. Among the gifts was a standard lamp from the fellow workers of the groom at Champion & White, Bagan Bay.

RUNDQUIST-MONTGOMERY

A quiet wedding took place recently at the home of the officiating minister, Rev. B. Bracher, Victoria, between Gladys, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Montgomery, Winnipeg, and Mr. Eric Rundquist, eldest son of Mr. Oscar Rundquist and the late Mrs. Rundquist, Lake Cowichan. Miss Margaret Rundquist, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and the groom's attendant was his uncle, Mr. John Matson. On their return, Mr. and Mrs. Rundquist will make their home at Lake Cowichan.

ANGUS-SMITH-HEATHCOTT

CALGARY, Oct. 26 (CP).—Miss Elizabeth Vernon Heathcott, eldest daughter of Captain and Mrs. R. V. Heathcott, of Calgary, and Robert Murray Angus-Smith, of Calgary, son of Mr. McKinley Angus-Smith, of Sarnia, Ont., and the late Mrs. Angus-Smith, will be married at Wesley United Church here tonight.

Both the bride and bridegroom, former residents of Vancouver, will be unattended. After the wedding and reception, Mr. and Mrs. Angus-Smith will spend a short honeymoon in Banff. They will reside in Calgary.

Centennial United Church Celebrates

The fifty-third anniversary services of Centennial United Church were held recently, the guest speakers being Rev. T. G. Griffiths, of St. Asaph's, on Sunday morning, and in the evening Rev. Dr. A. S. Inrie, of Emmanuel Baptist Church. Special music was provided by the choir.

On Monday the annual supper was served by the Ladies' Guild, followed by an organ recital by Mr. Edward Parsons, of the Metropolitan Church, musical items by the Elizabethan Quartette and cornet solos by Mr. G. H. E. Green, followed by a lecture by Rev. Andrew Reid entitled "Statesmen and Preachers I Have Heard."

Mr. Bruce, chairman of the evening, moved a vote of thanks to the assisting artists and Dr. Reid.

Mallow'en Party

Mrs. A. Campbell, Jr. and Mrs. C. Pimlott were hostesses at a kitchen shower held recently at the home of Mrs. Pimlott, 180 Burnside Road, in honor of Miss Dorothy Pears, whose marriage to Mr. William Campbell, Beaver Lake, will take place tomorrow. The gifts were concealed in a large pumpkin, and the rooms were decorated with orange and black trimmings. Games were won by Vera Pimlott, Gladys Campbell and Mrs. A. Campbell, Sr. Refreshments were served from a table covered with a lace cloth and centred with a silver bowl of Michaelmas daisies, chrysanthemums and asters. The invited guests were Mesdames A. Campbell, Sr., G. Massey, R. Campbell, G. Ferry, G. McIntosh, G. Bird and Misses Gladys Clark, Vera Pimlott, Gertrude and Gladys Campbell, Peggy McKee-John, Eleanor Baron, Cathy Campbell and Frances McKee-John.

Back From England

Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Piercy, of Hongkong, have returned from a four-months' visit to England, and are staying for a short time with Mr. Piercy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Piercy, 810 Linden Avenue, before sailing for the Far East.

To Hold Reception

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hewitt will hold their post-nuptial reception on Sunday, at the home of Mrs. Hewitt's aunt, Mrs. R. Owens, 2506 Government Street, from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and from 8 to 10 in the evening.

Returns to Australia

Mrs. R. Maybury, who has been visiting her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Pooley, and Miss Alice Pooley, Esquimalt, for the last two months has left to return to her home in Sydney, Australia.

Returns to Empress

Mrs. E. Jackson, social hostess at the Emerald Lake Chalet during the summer months, has returned to Victoria and will be at the Empress Hotel during the winter.

Returning Today

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Pooley will return to their home at Esquimalt today after a brief visit to Vancouver.

Return From England

After spending the past two years in England Mr. and Mrs. Norman Tyrrell have returned to Victoria.

Shower for Miss Preston

Miss Margaret Henry was hostess on Monday evening at her home on Scott Street at a miscellaneous shower for Miss Doris Preston, whose marriage to Mr. Val Carson, Peckinold, will take place early in November. The bride-to-be was presented with a corsage bouquet of pink carnations, and the gifts were presented in a decorated Halloween box. Halloween decorations were used on the table for the buffet supper, served by the hostess, who was assisted by Mrs. Victor Downard. The guests were Mesdames H. W. V. Peckinold, Victor Downard, and Misses A. Thompson, Jean Beason, Jean Porter, Dorothy Whittingham, Isabelle Tones, Maureen Peckinold and Phyllis Tones.

Hostess at Kitchen Shower

Miss Roseanna Gillespie was hostess at a kitchen shower and tea party yesterday afternoon for Miss Lillian Ryan, a bride-to-be early in November, given at her home, "The Leasowes," Fairfield Road. Others invited were Miss Virginia Ryan, Mrs. D. Cunningham, Mrs. D. Burdon-Murphy, and Misses Esme Ketchen, Anna Byrom, Audrey Ebert, Helen Baird, Gladys Beasley, Betty Chadwick, Joan Carmichael, Sheila Boorman, Terese Todd, Kythe Mackenzie, Gloria Wilson, Margaret Sutcliffe, Valentine Harlock, Desiree Davis, Cicely Holmes, Jill Scott, Ellen Swaine, Claudia Jesse, Muriel Craig and Doris Pheasant.

"SCORPIO"

If October 27 is your birthday the best hours for you on this date are from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.; from 2 to 4 p.m., and from 9 to 11 p.m. The danger periods are from 9 to 11 a.m.; from 7 to 9 p.m., and from 11 p.m. until midnight.

Do not take for granted that people will know you appreciate whatever it is to help you, for unless you express gratitude your silence might be construed as a lack of realization of their efforts to please you. Thanks is something everyone likes to receive. Be careful that you do not contradict yourself this day, for this will be a prevailing fault to which the average person is apt to be addicted. There is likely to be many a faux pas made so you must be mentally alert not to make some slip of the tongue. You might discover that very few of your family or friends are going to be capable of taking teasing graciously today. You may have to draw upon your reserve of will power to accomplish the tasks you have ahead of you this day, but shirk no responsibility if you wish to keep from getting into hot water. Married, engaged and courting couples, will do well to cater to each other's whims, if exhibitions of irritation are to be prevented. If you are a woman and October 27 is your birthday, you ought to be able to display an amazing amount of firmness whenever there is any justification for doing so. Part thinking is apt to be one of your most noticeable traits. A large number of your surmises are likely to be correct, providing jealousy or unfounded suspicion have nothing to do with their origination. You, in limited faith in those it loves and trusts. Through environment and luck opportunities are likely to come to this youngster, which if grasped, will enable it to attain an enviable position in the world of affairs. If you are a man and October 27 is your natal day, you must have some incentive in life to work hard if success is to crown your efforts. The army, navy, or mercantile marine, as well as selling, the practice of dentistry, law, medicine, or engineering, editorial work, authorship, acting or politics are among the activities through which you might get brilliant results. Kilby Macdonald And Alf Pike Are With the Rangers

Young Hockey Stars From Ottawa and Winnipeg Promoted by Lester Patrick to His National League Squad—Club to Carry Three Front Lines and Five Defencemen

REGINA, Oct. 26 (CP).—Promotion of Kilby Macdonald, of Ottawa, and Alf Pike, of Winnipeg, to New York Rangers, of the National Hockey League, was announced here today by Manager Lester Patrick.

Macdonald and Pike, both with Philadelphia Ramblers, of the International-American League, at the close of last season, were chosen to replace Cecil Dillon, forward, and Larry Molyneux, defenceman, sold to Cleveland.

Promotion of the two players from the Ranger Farm team was decided upon after their showing in the last two weeks at the Ranger training camp.

The rise of Pike, a member of Winnipeg's Dominion champion Junior Monarchs three years ago, has been sensational. He joined New York Rangers two seasons ago but jumped to Philadelphia for the International League play-offs last Spring. The twenty-two-year-old star has played in only eleven professional games and will be used as general utility man by the Rangers.

"Pike is being married in Winnipeg Saturday," commented Patrick. "This is his wedding present from the Ranger organization."

Macdonald, a twenty-four-year-old Ottawa boy who has been with the Ranger chain for three years, moves up to play right wing on the line with Clint Smith and Lynn Patrick. He is a left-hander, effective as a sniper on his "wrong" side of the ice. Macdonald was chosen all-star winger of the International League last Spring.

"My dream of an American-born player on the Ranger roster will have to wait another year," confessed Patrick as he announced that John Pollock, Loyola University football and hockey star, is being sent to Philadelphia for seasoning under Coach Herb Gardner despite impressive play in pre-season games.

Rangers will carry three forward lines, five defencemen and Pike, utility man, this season.

Frozen Ground Makes Officials Postpone Tussle

EDMONTON, Oct. 26 (CP).—The Edmonton-Calgary game, scheduled for Edmonton Saturday, has been canceled with the unanimous consent of the Western Interprovincial Football Union executive.

It was announced tonight by N. A. MacPhee, president of the Edmonton Sport Boosters' Club.

Rain and snow have covered the field with a sheet of ice, and it would be impossible to play on the treacherous surface, said Mr. MacPhee, adding the possibility of numerous injuries also was considered.

The cancellation sends Calgary Bronks into the conference sudden-death semi-final against Regina Roughriders, at the Saskatchewan city, on November 4.

SAYS HE CAN SAVE HORSE

Dentist Wants Chance to Spare Life of $40,000 Colt Sordado

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26 (AP).—Dr. Paul Wehner, Cincinnati dentist, whose ingenious therapy is credited with saving the lives of six injured race horses, wants to save C. S. Howard's fallen Sordado from destruction.

Howard has ordered the $40,000 colt destroyed Saturday. It snapped a sesamoid bone in the right foreleg two weeks ago while leading the field in the Gallant Fox Handicap at Jamaica.

Dr. Wehner, with a lucrative practice and "a mighty love for horses," telegraphed Howard of his belief that he could put Sordado "on his four legs again."

"I haven't seen the diagnosis," the dentist commented, "but I am confident he could be saved, at least for stud. And I would like to try."

He is even willing to provide a specially-designed van for the horse during the attempt, he added.

Dr. Wehner developed his treatment several years ago on his farm at Verona, Ky., and tried it first on Prince Pine, a former stake runner that fell on the old Coney Island track here five years ago.

Prince Pine recovered and so did five other horses whose injuries he treated later.

Dr. Wehner's method involves use of a special cast made of dental stone. If necessary, orthopedic joint and drainage tubes are inserted at or near the fracture.

The cast is changed as frequently as necessary, under anesthesia, the patient all the while being fed a special diet heavy in calcium.

LIBERAL RETURNED IN CRANBROOK TEST

from that gained by Mr. MacPhee in the 1937 general election. In that year Mr. MacPhee, with 3,110 votes, defeated Sam Smeaton, C.P.F., with 945, by a majority of 2,165 in a two-party contest.

The Provincial Conservative party did not contest today's election, in line with its announced policy to co-operate with Premier Pattullo's Government in proceeding with war efforts.

BIG LEAD IN CRANBROOK

The majority of the riding's votes are in Cranbrook City and Kimberley. McGrath took a wide lead in Cranbrook City with 785 votes to O'Connor's 296 and Smith's 218.

O'Connor, however, held an edge in the mining town of Kimberley with 694 votes to McGrath's 565 and Smith's sixty-three.

McGrath was born at Dodsland, Sask., attended public and high school there and at Kindersley, Sask., graduated from the University of Saskatchewan at Saskatoon and took his master of arts degree at the University of Toronto. He came to Canada, B.C., in 1931 and in 1937 to Cranbrook, where he is engaged in lumber and farm implement business.

Today's was the third by-election since the 1937 general election. The Liberals won Dewdney from the Conservatives in May of last year and lost a Vancouver Centre seat to the C.C.F. in May of this year.

PREMIER IS PLEASED

Keen satisfaction at the election of Arnold McGrath was expressed by Premier Pattullo tonight.

"I am gratified at the result," said the Premier, "and appreciate the support given Mr. McGrath by the electors of Cranbrook riding. I do not think it is necessary for me to say anything more."

NOT SURE OF OUTCOME

WASHINGTON, Oct. 26 (AP).—Reports from Moscow tonight that the United States freighter City of Flint had been permitted to sail from Murmansk under the American flag raised hopes here that the United States had won a victory in a tense diplomatic struggle.

However, officials were keeping their fingers crossed, especially in view of German news agency dispatches implying that a German ship was in command of the freighter when she left the Russian port.

There was believed a possibility the ship might be flying the United States flag and still be in the possession of the Germans. There would be precedent for the German crew raising the American colors under such circumstances. It was recalled that in the first Great War, instructions to the United States navy said that in case a neutral ship was taken by an American vessel, the flag of the neutral should be kept flying until a competent court adjudged the vessel a lawful prize.

DEMANDS RETURN OF SHIP

Secretary of State Cordell Hull had formally demanded today that Russia turn the vessel over to the United States Government, while Germany marshaled arguments to show that the craft was legally a German prize of war.

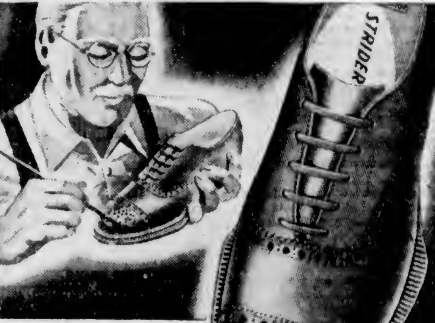

The nub of the dispute was whether the German raider which captured her violated international law by sailing her from the Russian Arctic port of Murmansk. Hull, in his demand on Russia, took the position a prize of war could be sent into a neutral port only in case of unusual circumstances, stress of weather or want of supplies.

The Reich claimed the vessel had suffered "sea damage." That was the reason she was taken to Murmansk, said a memorandum presented by the German Foreign Office to Alexander C. Kirk, United States charge d'affaires.

The aviation instructor, having delivered a lecture on parachute work, concluded:

"And if it doesn't open — well, gentlemen, that's what is known as 'jumping to a conclusion'."

• A new member of the Strider family, smart as any shoe you've ever seen... and eminently typical of Striders, in good, all-round value.

It has all the earmarks of a hand-made shoe from Bond Street, for which you'd pay a vastly higher price... But we sincerely believe it would give a Bond Street shoe real competition in long wear, appearance and comfort.

This new Strider model is making a big hit with Canadians who know and wear good shoes.

each drawing a score and two assists.

The Eagles scored in each period, with Eddie Bush, Wilson and Tremblay getting the tallies in order.

Canadiens tallied twice in the second period. Their first goal went to Louis Trudel. Canadiens went ahead, 2-1, when Ray Gettiffe, obtained this season from Boston Bruins, scored unassisted.

FIVE TEAMS IN ARCADE LEAGUE

Officers of the Arcade Senior Five-pin Bowling League were all re-elected at the annual meeting held at the Arcade Alley. The league officials are: Dick Jones, president; Buck Collins, vice-president; and Charlie Kinney, secretary.

Five teams, The Colonist, Savoy Cafe, Busy Bee Cafe, Arcades and Fairfields, are competing this year.

RED WINGS HELD TO FIVE-ALL TIE

GALT, Ont., Oct. 26 (CP).—Detroit Red Wings, of the National Hockey League, and Indianapolis Capitals, their farm team, opened the hockey season in Galt tonight by playing to a 5-5 overtime tie.

Indianapolis scored the first two goals early in the first period through Red Keating and Eddie Bush. Wings evened the game before the period ended on scores by Eddie Wares, of Calgary, and Syd Abel.

Jimmy Orlando netted first for the farm club in the second, and Wares for Detroit two minutes later.

Carl Liscombe put Indianapolis ahead after six minutes of the overtime, and Eddie Goodfellow, veteran Detroit rearguard, tied the game a minute later.

Detroit took the lead for the first time with less than a minute remaining on a goal by Gus Giesbrecht. The minor leagues tied the score, with Les Douglas counting on a pass from Archie Wilder.

CINCY BALL CLUB HAS BIG PROFIT

CINCINNATI, Oct. 26 (AP).—Powell Crosley, president of the Cincinnati Reds, reported today his National Baseball League champions played to a total of 1,193,926 fans at home in 1939 and that profit for the year approximated $400,000.

Planning to Assist Red Cross Fund

LONDON, Oct. 26 (CP).—English soccer officials are considering advisability of holding a knock-out competition to aid Red Cross funds.

If the proposal is approved selected teams from the eight regional leagues now being operated will participate.

The English League's management committee decided yesterday that members of His Majesty's Forces in uniform may, at discretion of the clubs, be admitted to matches at half the usual admission fees.

The committee turned down a suggestion to grant bonuses to players on winning teams.

While merits of the regional scheme and the likelihood of public interest being maintained are still uncertain, it is generally considered clubs are playing better football than in the pre-war period. Teams are concentrating on attacking play rather than defence and consequently the four-goals-a-game average chalked up last week should suit goal-hungry fans.

At the same time spectators are urged not to be too critical as the large majority of players are on night duty in police or other national jobs and many go to the games straight from work.

Canadiens in Tie

SHAWNIGAN FALLS, Que., Oct. 26 (CP).—A goal by Paul Haynes with less than half a minute to go gave Montreal's National Hockey League Canadiens a 3-3 tie tonight with New Haven Eagles, a farm club from the International American League.

No overtime was played.

Two newcomers to the ranks of the Flying Frenchmen, Marty Barry and Earl Robinson, figured in the goal by Haynes.

Don Wilson and Marcel Tremblay figured in every New Haven goal.

trade, "since they now appear willing to trade impartially with all belligerents."

TWOFOLD ADVANTAGE

This would not only be of commercial value to Great Britain, but might have the wider advantage of diverting Russian products from German markets.

It was learned later in the day that the British Government would send a formal reply to the Russian protest against inclusion of food in the British contraband list, but that the list would not be modified.

With a note of quiet confidence in his voice, the Prime Minister accepted German Foreign Minister Joachim von Ribbentrop's challenge to a war to the finish. He drew a chuckle from Ivan Maluk, Soviet ambassador to Great Britain, who was sitting in the diplomatic gallery, as he recalled the words of Von Ribbentrop three years ago that the only real danger in Europe was the further spread of Communism.

While the House echoed his confidence, Mr. Chamberlain declared the world would never accept Von Ribbentrop's theory that it was Great Britain and not Germany which had planned and forced war on Europe.

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Great Britain issued tonight the first general call for volunteers since the war began. A War Office announcement said voluntary enlistment was being opened for cavalry, infantry, artillery and engineers. Previously enlistment of only specialized classes had been asked.

Age limits for volunteers were set at twenty-two to thirty-five years in Great Britain, and twenty to thirty-five in Northern Ireland. After acceptance on the first call, those enlisted will be sent home with orders to report November 15.

In his Commons address Mr. Chamberlain reviewed the war developments of the past week, noting that "it seems now to have become the rule for merchant ships to be sunk without warning" by German sea raiders but that the destruction of "enemy submarines is being maintained at a sufficiently high rate to encourage us to believe that this menace to our trade will eventually be overcome."

URGES INITIATIVE

After Clement Attlee, Labor leader, expressed satisfaction with the Prime Minister's statement, the Liberal leader, Sir Archibald Sinclair, urged "vigorous initiative" by Great Britain to improve both trade and political relations with Russia.

Sir Archibald said, "We ought not to allow our relations with the Russian Government to stagnate in their present unsatisfactory and even dangerous position, erupting from time to time in fresh disagreement like that which is reported on the question of contraband."

He urged "a vigorous initiative, first in the commercial field and secondly in the diplomatic field, to convince the Soviet Government the interests of mankind will best be served by understanding and collaboration between the Governments of Russia and those of Great Britain and France."

PLEA IN LORDS

A similar plea was made in the House of Lords by Lord Listowel, Labor, who declared "We need not hesitate to say that we are anxious to obtain the benevolent neutrality of Russia as we are to maintain the benevolent neutrality of the United States."

He urged "some official intimation that we have no intention of interfering with their (Russia's) new position in Eastern and Northeastern Europe."

Lord Mottistone, Liberal, took issue, declaring "Russia may be too powerful for us to say 'Get out,' but to acquiesce is a thing I cannot accept."

Lord Halifax entered the debate, asserting the Soviet action "in regard to the Baltic States has caused anxiety not only in quarters immediately concerned, and the situation that has been created is not by any means wholly clear."

He expressed hope that the Russian-Finnish negotiations "may be brought to a reasonable conclusion."

FIRM GUARANTEE

Lord Halifax said the new Turkish treaty with Great Britain and France was a "pretty firm guarantee against aggression in that part of the world," and that arrangements were under discussion for financial and economic assistance to Turkey, particularly "in regard to supply of war materials."

Great Britain, he said, wanted to see good relations maintained between Turkey and Russia.

In reply to a question whether Germany and Russia had "arrived at an agreement to partition Poland as far back as last Summer," Lord Halifax said "I am afraid I have no precise information on that point."

Quadra School Will Entertain Saturday

A Halloween "Fun Fest" will be held at Quadra School tomorrow night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Attractions will include the traditional chamber of horrors, a tour through the witch's dungeon, a ghostly grotto, fortune telling and many novel contests. Candied apples, peanuts, doughnuts and coffee will be served. "Witch's Blood" will be available for those brave enough to drink it. Fun and frolic will be the order of the evening. A large committee, under the chairmanship of the school principal, has been working to make this an outstanding success. Everybody will be welcome.

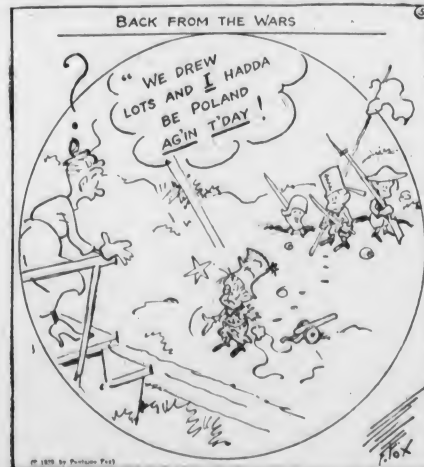

LEGION CARD PARTY

A well-attended and enjoyable card party was held on Wednesday evening in the Legion Hall at Langford under the auspices of the Prince Edward Branch No. 91, Canadian Legion. Mrs. H. A. Hincks and Mr. W. Savory won the two first prizes for bridge, and Mrs. K. Morrison received the consolation award. Mrs. J. T. Gill and Mr. J. Jameson won first prize for five hundred and Mr. W. J. Stalker the consolation. Mrs. J. Jameson and Mrs. J. W. Marshall had charge of the refreshments. The parties will be held regularly on the last Wednesday evening of each month.

Court of Appeal

Victoria Sitings

Turner's Dairy et al. (R) vs. W. E. Williams, E. D. Barrow, Acton Kilby and the Lower Mainland Dairy Products Board et al. (A)—At the conclusion of the hearing of this appeal today the Court of Appeal closed its Victoria sittings and adjourned until the first Tuesday in November, when the Fall sittings in Vancouver will open.

Senator Farris concluded his argument on this appeal by stating that if he were permitted to ask Mr. Williams the questions he had propounded on the examination for discovery, the evidence in reply would reveal that the dairy companies were paying such high prices for milk that they would have to go out of business if those orders were maintained. He stated that the evidence would reveal that the farmers themselves resented the orders and would refuse to supply milk to anybody under them. Mr. Locke, in reply, reaffirmed his position that the examination of Mr. Williams must be confined to the issues between him and the plaintiff companies. Mr. Williams was joined as a party in his personal capacity only, and in such a capacity was not liable to answer questions dealing with the board's policy. The only question before the court, Mr. Locke submitted, was whether or not these orders were within the powers vested in the board and what evidence could be presented to establish that proposition. There were no authorities which could be cited to allow for the evidence which the dairy companies were endeavoring to secure by cross-examining Mr. Williams. Judgment was reserved.

PLANT UTILIZES SURPLUS APPLES

Apple-Pressing Equipment Established by Victoria Fruit Juice Company

A new industry here and one which should prove of very real interest to Vancouver Island fruit growers has been established with the opening of a plant for pressing apples at 1120 Wharf Street, by the Victoria Fruit Juice Company.

This was established with the aim of utilizing the surplus of the apple crop, which must otherwise be lost, and putting it on the market in the form of apple juice. The management would be glad to get in touch with those growers who have surplus yields of which they cannot dispose.

Beaux-Arts To Observe Hallowe'en

Committee members of the Beaux-Arts Hallowe'en party, to be held next Tuesday, in the clubroom, Leighton and Duich streets have been working industriously during the past week, preparing for an evening full of fun and surprises. Dancing will take place in the main hall, and games suitable to the occasion will be held in the adjoining rooms. The premises will be "haunted" for the evening; mysterious figures will be seen to the accompaniment of "ghostly" noises. Miss Jean Bristow is arranging the refreshments to be served during the evening.

Unique decorations are being used, under the direction of Mr. George Cameron, assisted by Mr. Edward Savannah, who is attending to the illumination. It is hoped old and new members will attend this interesting Hallowe'en party. Further information may be obtained from the secretary, Mr. Cedric Levee.

Her Excellency To Give Address

The Girl Guides of Canada will celebrate National Guide Day on Saturday. This year the Victoria Guides will intensify their efforts to help the Red Cross and the Committee for Medical Aid for China, with work which was planned some weeks ago.

The day of special endeavor will conclude with a coast-to-coast broadcast, which will be opened by Her Excellency Lady Tweedsmuir, speaking from Ottawa, and Hon. Norman Rogers, Minister of Defence, who it is hoped, will give Guides special pointers on how they can help their country at this time. The chief commissioner, Mrs. H. D. Warren, C.B.E., will reply to Mr. Rogers, and the broadcast will conclude with music and greetings from each province. British Columbia's provincial commissioner, Mrs. Alan Morlick, winding up the proceedings and speaking from Vancouver.

This broadcast will be heard over all stations on the C.B.C. network from 5 to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday.

ST. LUKE'S

An interesting visit was made by the members of St. Luke's to the Plant and Dairy last Tuesday evening. After the tour through the plant the members were served ice cream. Next Tuesday there will be a swimming party at the Crystal Garden and all members are invited.

ST. MARK'S

The weekly meeting of St. Mark's Association was held on Tuesday evening, in the Parish Hall. It was announced that the country fair was a financial success. Mr. E. Seedhouse gave a report on his fund-raising work, and it was decided to hold a social on Hallowe'en. Further arrangements will be announced later. After the business meeting a debate was held between Margaret Gibson and Michael Oliver, of Langford-Colwood, who were debating on "The Affirmative." Mr. Parkinson, Mr. M. F. Hunter and Mr. John Baxter acted as judges. St. Mark's team won.

CATHEDRAL

Group 5 arranged an enjoyable Hallowe'en social for the Christ Church Cathedral branch on Wednesday evening. All the members attended in fancy dress and the evening began with games and competitions. A treasure hunt led to the basement, appropriately decorated and lit with lanterns and candles, for pumpkin pie and coffee. After a short business meeting, at which members were reminded of the telephone social to be held this month, the evening concluded with dancing in the gymnasium. Next Wednesday evening the dean will give the first of his lectures on "Pseudship, Love, Courtship and Marriage." The lecture will begin at 8 o'clock, and members are asked to attend early.

CHAPTER XXIX

"What do you do first, Mr. Sutton?" "I am entirely unversed in these matters."

"I think first of all I should like to call your family and make some general enquiries, and after that, question this one or that one alone."

"Very well, then we must go to a larger room. I supposed you would find out how anybody could get into my brother's room. I know this house so well, you see, and I know nobody could get in when his hall door was locked."

"A sealed room used to be a great mystery, Miss Madison, but I think Mr. Stone will tell you, that they usually give up their secrets to him. You have guests?"

"Only one, at this moment. Three left this morning."

"They should not have been allowed to go."

"I knew no reason to detain them. You cannot possibly suspect any of my family or guests—or my servants."

"It is too soon to suspect anybody yet. Let us get the people to gether."

"They went to the living-room, where they found Fleming Stone and the two Madison men, also Everett Ames."

Anita was there, too, and Miss Madison said: "I have another house guest, Miss Yvette Verne. But she has gone to New York on some errands and will be back later."

interrupted, looking annoyed. "Who were in the party?"

"Why, all of us, Miss Madison, and Craig and Tom, and Mr. Ames. They all live here. Then the guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Lee and Mr. Clifford Hale. And Miss Verne, the film-star, and me—that's all."

"And then Mr. Madison announced his engagement?"

"Yes, and we were all so surprised! I mean, most of us were. Maybe some knew it before. But me! you could have knocked me down with a feather! Well, it was lovely; everybody was so pleased and glad, and Miss Madison went and brought the Madison pearl necklace and hung it round Yvette's neck, and we drank their health, and we danced, and everything!"

"And what time did you go up to bed?"

"I haven't the least idea. I went up when the Lees did."

"Who can tell me at about what time the party broke up?"

"I guess I can," offered Craig. "It wasn't so very late. About one o'clock Aunt Cornelia said Yvette was getting tired, and she was going to take her to bed. So they went upstairs then, and soon after, I remember Laura Lee said they would go, and she and her husband followed. Yvette trailed along after that, and Uncle Harley was the last one. I said good night to him, and left him finishing a cigar. He was sitting in that big easy chair and looked as happy as could be. I thought maybe he wanted to think things over so I didn't say and talk, but went along in bed."

"Do you know what time your uncle went upstairs?"

"I do. His room is next to mine, and I heard him in there not much later. He didn't stay down very long, but as to the time I've no idea."

"Say Miss Madison went upstairs at one o'clock, then do you think the others would have been up by half-past one?"

"Why, yes, I should say so. Maybe a bit later, but by quarter of two anyhow."

"These things are of utmost importance. Now, will each of you say exactly what you did on going upstairs? Miss Madison?"

"I went up with Miss Verne, Cornelia said, 'and we paused a moment before she opened her door. I was telling her how glad I was that my brother was so happy, and she looked so lovely. I hated to leave her. I kissed her good night, and went to my own room. I went right to bed and right to sleep, for what with the excitement and all, I was very tired."

"You didn't hear your brother come up?"

"Oh, no. His room is at the other end of the house."

"Sutton spoke next to Craig. 'You are older, Mr. Madison, than your cousin, are you not?'"

"Yes, three years older."

"Did you hear any noise in the night?"

"Not a sound. I sleep very soundly, and too, this old house is well built, and the walls and floors are so thick, sounds are seldom heard. It is kind of what time my uncle was attacked?"

"The doctors say, between three and four o'clock this morning. But that is not a positive statement."

"I heard no sounds of any sort, until I awoke this morning."

"Mr. Sheldon?"

"Turn Sheldon's story was almost the same as Craig's. His room was beyond Craig's, and he too, slept soundly through the small hours."

Sutton did not put these questions to Anita. He was sure if she knew anything about the circumstances, she would broadcast the knowledge, without being requested.
